In Dickinson's pooket the police declare they found what was apparently the answer to his letter, which read:

"If you know what is good for you, you will stay away from my flat."

On the day before the murder Dickinson spent many hours, detectives learned, locked in his room, and they are now investigating on that theory that the bomb was manufactured in his room.

at Champiain, N. Y.

"I am innocent of this, father," he told the old man.

"I believe you, my boy," he replied. The elder Dickinson obtained from the coroner permission to have the hearing put over until Wednesday.

Concerning the matrimonial history of the Taylor woman, much conflicting evidence has been obtained by the police, but, according to Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty, it was established to-day that one J. H. Taylor, supposed to have been a husband of the murdered woman, died in December, 1911, in a sanatorium at Plattsburg, N. Y.; that a man named Howard Taylor, a friend of the woman, died in Binghamton, N. Y. and that Howard Walker, also supposed to have been a husband, is alive and being scarched for by the police. Efforts to find any messanger boy who delivered the bomb to Mrs. Taylor have proved futtle. Police Make Significant Discoveries in Connection With Helen New York, February 5.—Investigation to-day into the mysterious murder of Mrs. Helen Taylor by the explosion of a bomb in her apartments last Saturday night brought out some alleged facts which the police regard as significant in connection with the recent movements of Charles M. idekinson, who was with the woman when the explosion occurred.

A few days before the murder Dickinson and Mrs. Taylor had a quarrel, the police say, in which the woman scratched Dickinson's face. Later Mrs. Taylor called on her sister, Mrs. Evans, and expressed fear of Dickinson. A letter signed by Dickinson, found among the dead woman's effects, the police say, begged that he "be taken back."

In Dickinson's pocket the police declare the fear of the fe a two-hour examination on the meththe Corporation Court and subjected to a two-hour examination on the methods of operating that concern. Hoof upon being asked by his attorney, J. L. Jeffries, if in the nineteen years' existence of the association he ever used any of its money for his own purposes, replied, "Before God I never used a cent."

The second hour Hooff was subjected to a grilling cross-examination by the Commonwealth's Attorney, His examination had not been concluded when court adjourned, and he will again take the stand to-morrow morning.

again take the stand to-morrow morning.

Deposit slips for various sums of money in the shape of checks and notes deposited for the association at local banks showing certain amounts in cash totaling $1,150 turned over to a messenger were shown to Hooff by his attorney. Hooff explained that he received all of this money and it was paid out from the office of the association in the usual manner in the regular course of business.

It was on these transactions that the indictments were returned.
